What's Hot this Fall?

Dear Saranya,
We officially moved our company to Albany NY. We will begin a free after school educational theater program, at the Holy Spirit Lutheran Church (starting dates TBA). While we are gearing up to start, we have some collaborations, fundraisers and some exciting news about our company members that we would like to share with you.

Haitian People's Support Project

Since we began in 2007,

We have been actively seeking a home to make our interactive brand of Educational theater, "putting a pulse" in History, making academics come alive and bridging generations and cultures through our unique blend of socially conscious and completely diverse brand of Theater arts a reality.

We have found a home and a place in which to place our free after school acting and arts program and will pilot it this Fall. (Dates TBA).

We are excited to announce the move and we are welcomed by the congregation of the

Holy Spirit Lutheran Church 57 Hurlbut Street Albany NY 12209

as part of there outreach into the greater Albany community.

Look for more dates and upcoming events as we get underway.
Thank you for all of your support.
