Live Music by Willie Smith

Sam Cooke:
"Where you been Baby?"

by
Michael Monasterial

This landmark award winning play has played to thousands of fans throughout the Hudson Valley. The newest revival of this original American musical offers some unique and undiscovered talents that we believe should be not ne missed!

Sam Cooke was a musical innovator and Civil rights activist who's timeless music and personal stye broke down racial barriers and lead the way for Black artists today. In the turbulent 1960's Sam Cooke left his mark on American music and American History.
