Beacon comes to Broadway gets it first local business sponsor

Dear Saranya,

Our "Beacon Comes to Broadway" program that is part of our efforts to stimulate new interest in daytime arts in the Howland Cultural center  and Off season Main st attractions has been of to a great start and has been gaining in momentum. This program has been endorsed by the city of Beacon and other arts orgs, but we still have many seats left and we are looking for YOUR attendance.

BreakThrough talent a local Beacon business has signed on to be a sponsor and open our event.

On April 25th at 12 noon at the Howland Cultural Center
477 Main st Beacon NY
We will Present

Dennis Yerry and Ann Osmond
"amazing piano and wonderful harmonies"
they will perform Broadway hits...for all generations

The three course buffet gourmet lunch includes:

Chicken Marsala with French Cut string beans
choice of Garden or Spinach Salad
Fresh fruit, Ice Cream or sorbet dessert
and Coffee, Tea and assorted Beverages

The admission cost is 25$ with group rates for 10 or more. $20 for seniors discount and Beacon residents.

Our Gala act

In case anyone hasn't heard of these fantastic local musical Artists

http://www.osmondandyerry.com/

Facebook:http://www.facebook.com/pages/Ann-Osmond-Dennis-Yerry-Jazz-Cabaret-Duo/134522529937993

Ann Osmond & Dennis Yerry - A Man and A Woman

Beacon, Howland CC, Ann Osmond and Dennis Yerry Promo Part 1

Passing the Torch TV
"Have you noticed beacon Lately?"
will Air on Cablevision public access Channel 21
6pm Sunday April 22nd