Passing the Torch Through the Arts

"Passing on the Fire of Inspiration since 2007"

Albany Programming Fall 2014

Look for our collaboration with FIGAH (filling in the Gaps of American History)
this February
Its a new play about some famous Black woman who fought and often won battles with transit systems over their civil rights.
Years before Rosa Parks. Its called
"Liberty in Motion"

Oh, and by the Way Dennis Washington is in the Albany performances, it wouldn't be Sam Cooke without the silky voice of Preacher Washington!

"Delightful, interesting, thought provoking...moving"
